Engagement of College Students as short term Interns for updating Peoples Biodiversity Registers (PBRs)

As part of the International Biodiversity Day-2023 celebration, the graduate and post graduate students of Botany/Zoology/Biology disciplines are going to be involved in the updating of Peoples Biodiversity Registers (PBRs) which is a national level initiative by the Ministry of Environment, Forests and Climate Change and the National Biodiversity Authority.

(PBRs are a documented inventory of the biological resources available in the territory under the jurisdiction of the concerned Biodiversity Management Committee in a local body)

The college students participating in the activity shall be paid with a stipend for the engagement period and shall be provided with a certificate of participation

Tentative duration of engagement as intern: May 11th to May 31st (3 weeks)

Stipend: Rs 10000

We encourage interested students of various following districts who are ongoing their studies or recently completed in the above mentioned disciplines to widely take part in the exercise by applying through the Google form given below.

Please note that your workplace will be the same district for which you are applying for
